

Real Estate Services for Senior Homeowners

Michelle has a very personal approach to guide Boomers & Senior Homeowners every step of the way to a smooth stress free move.

She is committed to protect senior homeowners and their families from being pressured into making any decisions until they are ready.

As one of a very few realtors who is both a certified Senior Real Estate Specialist & Accredited Senior Agent, Michelle's focus is that her Senior Home Sellers are treated with utmost patience & care.

Whether making the transition into a smaller home or condo, retirement residence, assisted living residence or moving in with family, Michelle has experience and a trusted team of professionals working with her to manage all the details.
