Barrie's new transit hub

Coming to Barrie in 2020, the new Allandale transit hub is set to enhance regional travel for residents at 430 ESSA. Just minutes away from the condo, this new addition to Allandale Waterfront GO Station will simplify morning commutes and enable greater connectivity throughout the GTA, Simcoe County, Muskoka and more. This main transit terminal will also increase opportunity for local businesses and set the stage for a boost in property resale value.

Key benefits

Expanded GO service

The new Allandale Mobility Hub has prompted expanded service on the Barrie GO line. By 2020, Metrolinx plans to offer all-day, two-way GO service 7 days a week.

Local opportunities

The new transit terminal will minimize travel time, cultivate community and provide potential commercial spaces for new stores and services.

Faster connections

430 ESSA makes it easier to access a main transit terminal, commute to work and travel to cities and towns in surrounding regions.

An epicentre of accessibility

430 ESSA delivers the luxury of accessibility in all aspects of your life. Whether you're running errands or commuting to and from the city, this condo accommodates any lifestyle with everything you need outside your door. Residents are in close proximity to major highways, local transit, regular GO service and the new highly anticipated Allandale Mobility Hub.

Accessible

Close to Highway 400 and the new Allandale Mobility Hub, residents can easily access destinations like the GTA, Simcoe County and Muskoka.

Regular GO Service

Minutes away from Allandale Waterfront and Barrie South GO Stations, 430 ESSA minimizes travel time and makes commuting easier.

Local Transit

Getting around Barrie has never been easier. Residents are steps away from local transit, commuter trains and inter-city buses.
